Consistently at the top of the leaderboard when it comes to condominium living in Edmonton, Carrington Communities' newest addition to the North End neighbourhood of Schonsee is another prime example of inspired living.

And with it comes five phenomenal designer suites that were debuted to the public on May 25 at an inspired event at Northshore Condos at Schonsee. Carrington's in-house designer, Ashley Slaven, created each of the unique suites to cater to a variety of tastes and styles. Here's a sneak peak:

The Laguna

The first of the Northshore designer suites to be revealed is the aptly named Laguna. Inspired by calming blues and sunny beach life, this breezy coastal-inspired condo will convince you to spend your days in flip flops. The trendy butcher block countertops, deep black farmhouse sink, soft blue hued painted cabinets and dual mounted surfboards on the wall prove you can live the So-Cal lifestyle North of the border.

The Bliss

Ever wanted to feel like you live in a five-star boutique hotel along the Seine in Paris? Enter the Bliss suite. This chic, elegant, ultra luxurious space is designed to inspire Parisian vistas with natural light and sparkles of soft metallics, offset by just the right amount of white fur pillows. The entire place radiates, combining chrome fixtures, a quartz waterfall island countertop and gold decor elements between the double master bedrooms and serene baths.

The Maverick

In stark contrast to the Bliss is the bold and rugged Maverick suite. Inspired by an urban city feel brought to life with a floor to ceiling rustic brick-tiled feature wall, a bold black painted living room wall that challenges you to 'Live Outside The Box'. The stunning large kitchen has enough room for you and three or four of your friends to deftly manoeuvre around each other as you ascend the ranks of master home-chefs.

The Brooklyn

Next in the lineup is the audacious Brooklyn suite. Inspired by the hip New York burrough, the smokey greys and taupes, textured tiled backsplash, concrete quartz countertop and triple row recessed lighting all lend to the allure of this space. At almost 1000 square feet, the open, airy layout overlooks the enormous designated green space park that sprawls below its third-floor balcony.

The Coachella

Last up is the show-stopping Coachella Suite. Inspired by Boho Chic, this corner unit is comprised of wall-to-wall windows and an oversized patio that let sunlight flood in. Quirky musically themed decor, super funky design elements and natural wood tones shape this space to the famous festival from which it the suite gets its name. It's aimed to please anyone that embodies a carefree lifestyle and wants a tranquil retreat that equals in its impressive use of space and ability to entertain more than enough friends and family within its whimsical walls.

These unique designers suites are currently available to tour, and purchase with all furniture and decor included in their starter-home prices. Starting from the $230's, there is something for everyone—and every taste. To learn more, visit carrington.ca (<https://www.carrington.ca/>)
